Reception Desks

Create a positive and lasting first impression.

The reception area is one of the first rooms that any visitor will see upon arrival, so a stylish reception desk will help to create a great first impression.

We do offer a standard reception desk with integrated pigeonhole units for schools but many of the reception units we produce now are manufactured to order in our bespoke department.

The days of blackboards and
chalk are long gone.

The image shows a media wall we recently designed, manufactured and installed to accommodate a television display and soundbar. The image also shows our durable tables (see page 24) with stools from our soft seating range (see page 40).

The classroom of today is packed full of the latest interactive technology and we are often asked to incorporate audiovisual solutions in our furniture designs.
